O R D E R:

Heard both the counsel.

It is represented that the term itself is over and it is the matter relating to election. It is needless to say that the writ petition has become infructuous and in view of the same the writ petition shall stand dismissed as having become infructuous.

However, it is brought to the notice of this Court that there are certain findings, which are adverse findings relating to the writ petitioner. The writ petitioner is given liberty to agitate relating to the said questions, if the writ petitioner is so advised at the appropriate stage.

With this observation, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No order as to costs.
